Kathleen Valdez has joined the IPPS Analytics team.

She’ll have as our Social Responsibility & eProcurement Specialist.

She’ll support the Strategic Procurement group by managing our bid technology.

Kathleen’s experience in the higher education and financial sector will support the Sustainability and Small Business team. Her continued support of the green initiatives and community for all staff.

Procurement Officer Ted Johnson shared his thoughts on managing a hybrid workforce.

Support Services provides access to the largest and most complete small businesses database that facilitates purchasing from a small business first.

To help you locate small business suppliers, the University of California has partnered with the Small Business Development Center (SBDC) and the California Small Business Development Network (CDESBDC) to deliver an automated, online, and centralized searchable database of businesses.

For questions about the MetLife partnership, please visit the UCSD MetLife website.

MetLife Insurance

To make an appointment to come in and peruse our aisles in person. Save. Earn. Recycle.

Neutral Last-Mile initiative.

Logistics 2.0 Carbon Neutral Last-Mile Update

This initiative aims to reduce carbon emissions by using eco-friendly vehicles and packaging. It promotes the use of electric and hybrid vehicles, as well as the adoption of sustainable packaging materials.

Back to Business Travel Tips from Balboa Travel

When it’s time to book travel, go with UC-negotiated contracts. Travelers can book air, hotel, rental cars, and more with discounted rates and perks.

When it’s time to book travel, go with Concur.